The resignation of Commissioner Thomas Marsh Brown (who served for many years in Canton) is also recorded.

On Saturday evening, Chiarini's combination essayed to give their opening performance in the large and spacious marques at Bowrington to an immense nudience, but owing to the unpropitious state of the weather, only four items of the programme had been gone through when the entertainment was brought to an abrupt termination. A violent gust of wind, accompanied by torrents of rain, struck the tent with such force that for a time it seemed as if the marquee would be thrown down, and so cause great loss of life, and danger to limb, The supports held firm, however, and nothing more serious happened than the ripping up of several stretches of canvas, and the saturating of the audience, who, though the affair looked rather alarming for a short time, showed great coolness. Several of the spectators made tracks to leave the tent, but did so in an orderly and quiet manner. The heavy downpour of rain rapidly came through the canvas, and under the circumstances Signor Chiarini intimated, through Mr Lehmann, to the few remaining visitors, that it would be impossible to continue the performance. The injured portion of the marquee was theroughly repaired yesterday, and the other damage put to rights, so that we may expect to see the full capacity of the Circus in full play to-night. Nothing could have been done to avoid the mishap, and no blame can be attached to the management. The members of the Company who had the opportunity of performing, received the well-deserved applause of the spectators. Les Mosquetaires de la Reine was executed with great exactness, led by Signor Chiarini and Miss Nellio Reid, who were both . mounted on beautiful animals; the careful training which they had undergone being apparent in all their movements. Mr Thuzet gracefully poised himself in several difficult positions on the oscillating trapeze. Under the guidance of Mr Romano, the "Educated Zebra" did some neat jumping; and Mr F. Watson appeared in an equestrian scene, entitled "England, Ireland, and Scotland," representing the three nations, to the entire satisfaction of the onlookers. We hope to have the pleasure of witnessing this excellent company at their best this evening, and trust that the weather will be much more advantageous. The entertainment is announced for every night (weather permitting).

We learn that on her voyage out the new ship caught fire in her bunkers, and it is to ascertain the amount of injury the Stirling Castle has received, that a surveyor has been sent to report upon her present condition. It is more than probable that Captain Marshall's ship will be first away from Hankow. She will take no more than 4,000 tons of tea, but the freight will rule at least as high as £7.10 and possibly £8

pondent says :--The ship Richard Robinson recently

The shippers were Vogel Brothers, Hongkong; Mr Henry Vogel, of New York, chartering We the vessel. When the cargo was discharged only 2,500 bales were found as invoiced the others being inferior matting. This disclosed a gigentic fraud involving 8500,000 loss, and also affecting other consignees inferior shipments of silks and hemp, obtaining payment through letters of credit. THE tea market at Hankow opened on the 11th, but there seems to have been no great hurry ovinced, up to the date of last advices, only 20 chops having been reported as sold at noon of the 12th. On that date, the steamers Moscow, Stirling Castle, Massalia and Glenfrian were in port. The new jewellery on view at the Centennial Exhi-Clen steamer Glenogle (Captain Gulland,) bition, Bangkok, is valued at a million which left Singapore on the morning of Monday, the 8th, reached Woosung at 6 p.m. of Sunday, the 14th, thus making the run from Singapore to Woosung in 62 days: she is reported to have passed up the river at about 4 a.m. of the 15th. M. M. homeward steamer Diemnah writes to the Singapore Times on the 11th inst., protesting against the incivility of some of the officials there, in the following terms :-

Sir, I am a passonger on the homeward bound French mail steamer Djemnak, and I had occasion to visit your Post-Office this afternoon, and upon entering it I inadvertently omitted to remove my vigar. Coming as Ldid from a fierce light and wearing sun eye-glasses at the time you will no doubt naturally, understand how it was I failed for the moment to see that familiar phrase depicted on the walls "no smoking allowed." I had scarcely time to ask for my stamp when out rushed a gentleman, tal with black whiskers, who yelled out at the top of his voice "No snoking allowed Can't you see the notice." Int once removed my eigar and also my glasses, and mildly replied that the notice to which he alluded had quite escaped me, but that he need not shout quite so loud as I was not deaf. He -replied "Sceing you were blind I thought you might be deaf also.". This insulting kind of conduct, Sir, is greatly to be deplored, and I think scarcely befits the dignity of the service to which he has the honor to belong.

Fancy Mr Lister or any one under him indulging in a scene like this!

THE Singapore Times of the 12th and 13th inst, gives the following items :- "

The Government, we learn, have declined to pay the passage home of Mr Whitehead and Mr Cameron, the engineers, who were left behind by the e panish steamer Leon XIII, and both have now accepted local employment, Mr Whitehead as Chief. Engineer of the steamer Petrel, and Mr Cameron in the steamer Carrisbrooks. The two boiler-makers, who were also left behind, have found employment at the Tanjong Pagar Dock. According to what we learn from wellinformed sources the terms of the treatof amity and commerce between the United States, and Corea have been thoroughly arranged between Commodore Shufeidt Li Hang-chang, and the Corean Envoy Commodore Shufeldt goes, in fact, with treaty cut and ilry in his possession, and it is improbable that anything will interfere with its completion. We are rather inclined to think that the Chinese look on Li Hung-chang's management of this affair as very astute, and as baffling the designs both of Russia and Japan. Arrangements for the establishment of a Customs service at the Corean ports are positing the formal opening of the country by the treaties. Many interests are to be represented among the members of what may now be called the Corean Mission. One prominent house has sent two delegates, who went north by a recent steamer, and the same step said to have been taken by the China Merchants Steam Navigation Company.

- Concerning some spurious tea recently imported into London, Messrs J. C. Sillar, & Co.'s Tea Circular for March says :--Attention has lately been directed . to the sale by public auction of a chop of purious teas consisting of 112 half-chests They were imported from Hongkong in February last, and marked "Extra choicest Ningehow Congod," they were purchased by the dealers at about 6d. per lb., and have been distributed throughout the They consist almost entirely of Willow or other leaves, mixed with some matter which has become putrid, and have a most offensive smell and taste; a few inches of sound "New Make" commor Congou are packed in the top of each halfchest; and by this means they have cluded the vigilance of the Custom-house officials. We understand that the Hector, which brought the spurious teas alluded to above, sailed originally from Japan, and we would not be surprised if the fraud was committed in that country. THE ASSAULT ON SERGEANT HANSON, Wong Akwong, carpenter, was charged on two counts, first with assaulting William Hanson with intent to commit a theft, and second with making assault on the said person, thereby occasioning actual bodily lmym on the 12th March.

The circumstances of the case, which have been already fully reported in our Police columns, are as follows: On the afternoon of the 12th March an officer from the German gunboat Iltis, which was in harhour at that time, was walking in the neighbourhood of the Peak when he met the prisoner and asked him to joint out the right path. The prisoner misdirected the officer. and dogged the latter for some time. A the officer became suspicious of the man and wished to get rid of him, he allowed him to pass. The prisoner disappeared for some little time, but the officer again met him at a sharp bend of the road with his hands behind his back. Not liking his appearance, the officer made the prisoner show his hands, which he did one at a time, and very reluctantly, and in one of which he had a large sharp stone. The officer then went to the Gap and reported the natter to Sergeant Hanson, who accom panied him to the spot , where he had met the prisoner to try, and discover him, but without observing any trace of him. Later on in the evening Sergeant Hanson again went down the road in plain clothes, and while on his way back to the Gap was attacked by the prisoner with a large bainboo; which inflicted a very severe cut on his head. The Sergeant though greatly stunned grappled with the prisoner, and succeeded throwing him into a gutter, where he struck his head on the kerb, and so overcame him.
